CHILDREN’S SUMMER THEATRE WORKSHOP

CSTW Workshops I & II will explore a combination of techniques basic to theatrical performance. Students will play Improvisational theatre games, practice voice projection and expression, develop characters, memorize lines and perform in front of their peers.

Students will, also, take a tour of the Bowlus stage, experience the grid and learn about basic stage equipment.

CSTW: IMPROV Workshop is such a fun workshop! This workshop is open to students entering the 9th grade through students graduating the 12th grade. This will be a week long intensive improvisation workshop. We will work on improvisation, vocal enhancement, pantomime, voice and diction, expression and body movement.

All workshops will end with a public performance, showcasing the students. CSTW is under the direction of John Higginbotham. Groups are limited to 20 students. Priority will be given to returning students.

Pre-enrollment is required to reserve your spot!

LOCATION: Bowlus Fine Arts Center: 205 E. Madison (Drop-off each weekday at Southeast Loading Dock doors. Come up the stairs to the Large Rehearsal Hall [old band room]). Pickup is East (glass) doors
